Hear from Our Students

"Though it could be as demanding as China, I am happy that in Vietnam, they prioritize work-life balance, and people tend to work together in close-knit groups and value teamwork."

Charran

"Great country with great culture and great economic opportunities."

Amar-Raj

"My perception of Vietnam was good and it was even better after spending 5 weeks in HCMC."

Warm Greeting & Companies Projects

As the students commenced their internships at host companies, they were greeted with enthusiasm by their soon-to-be colleagues and seniors. The warm welcome extended to them not only set a positive tone but also underscored the professionalism of the environment they were about to enter.

Throughout their internships, the students engaged in professional activities gaining invaluable insights and practical skills relevant to their fields of study.

They took on different projects, collaborated with local teams, and contributed to ongoing company initiatives, gaining hands-on experience in a real-world business environment.

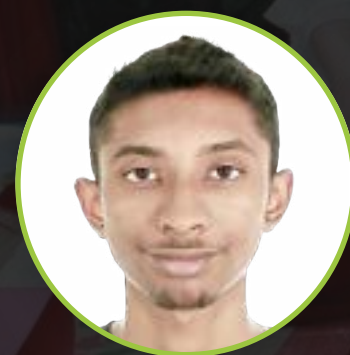

“I have enjoyed myself thoroughly because of good company, and colleagues, and I have made many friends here. Did not feel homesick because I was living a good life”

Francis Wong

Meaningful Activities

Beyond their professional experiences, the students also expanded their networks and developed meaningful connections with industry leaders and Vietnamese colleagues through a variety of activities.

“I am recommending my fellow coursemates to explore work opportunities in Vietnam to get used to working with cross-cultural environments”

Charran

Live Like A Local

“Vietnam culture is different from my thoughts. People are kind and nice, and helpful too”

Jing Qing

City Tour

Supported by Talent JDI's Global Ready Talent team, the students immersed themselves in Ho Chi Minh City's rich history, dynamic culture, bustling street life, and savored traditional Vietnamese dishes.

“Unfamiliar with country, after visiting felt that people are friendly”

Ernest

Hang Out Together

During their internship, the NTU students and their Vietnamese colleagues formed lasting memories, enjoying picnics and embarking on adventures to explore nearby attractions.

Moreover, they also were able to build relationships with fellow interns from institutions such as Singapore Management University, the National University of Singapore, Republic Polytechnic, and Temasek Polytechnic, all of whom were also completing internships in Vietnam.

Outdoor Activities

The NTU students were able to participate in a refreshing and exhilarating rowing stand-up paddleboarding (SUP) activity, taking a break from their academic endeavors to immerse themselves in the serene beauty of the surrounding landscape.

Farewell

Party

The farewell party marked the end of an extraordinary internship journey and the beginning of lifelong career development for the students.

Vietnam Travel

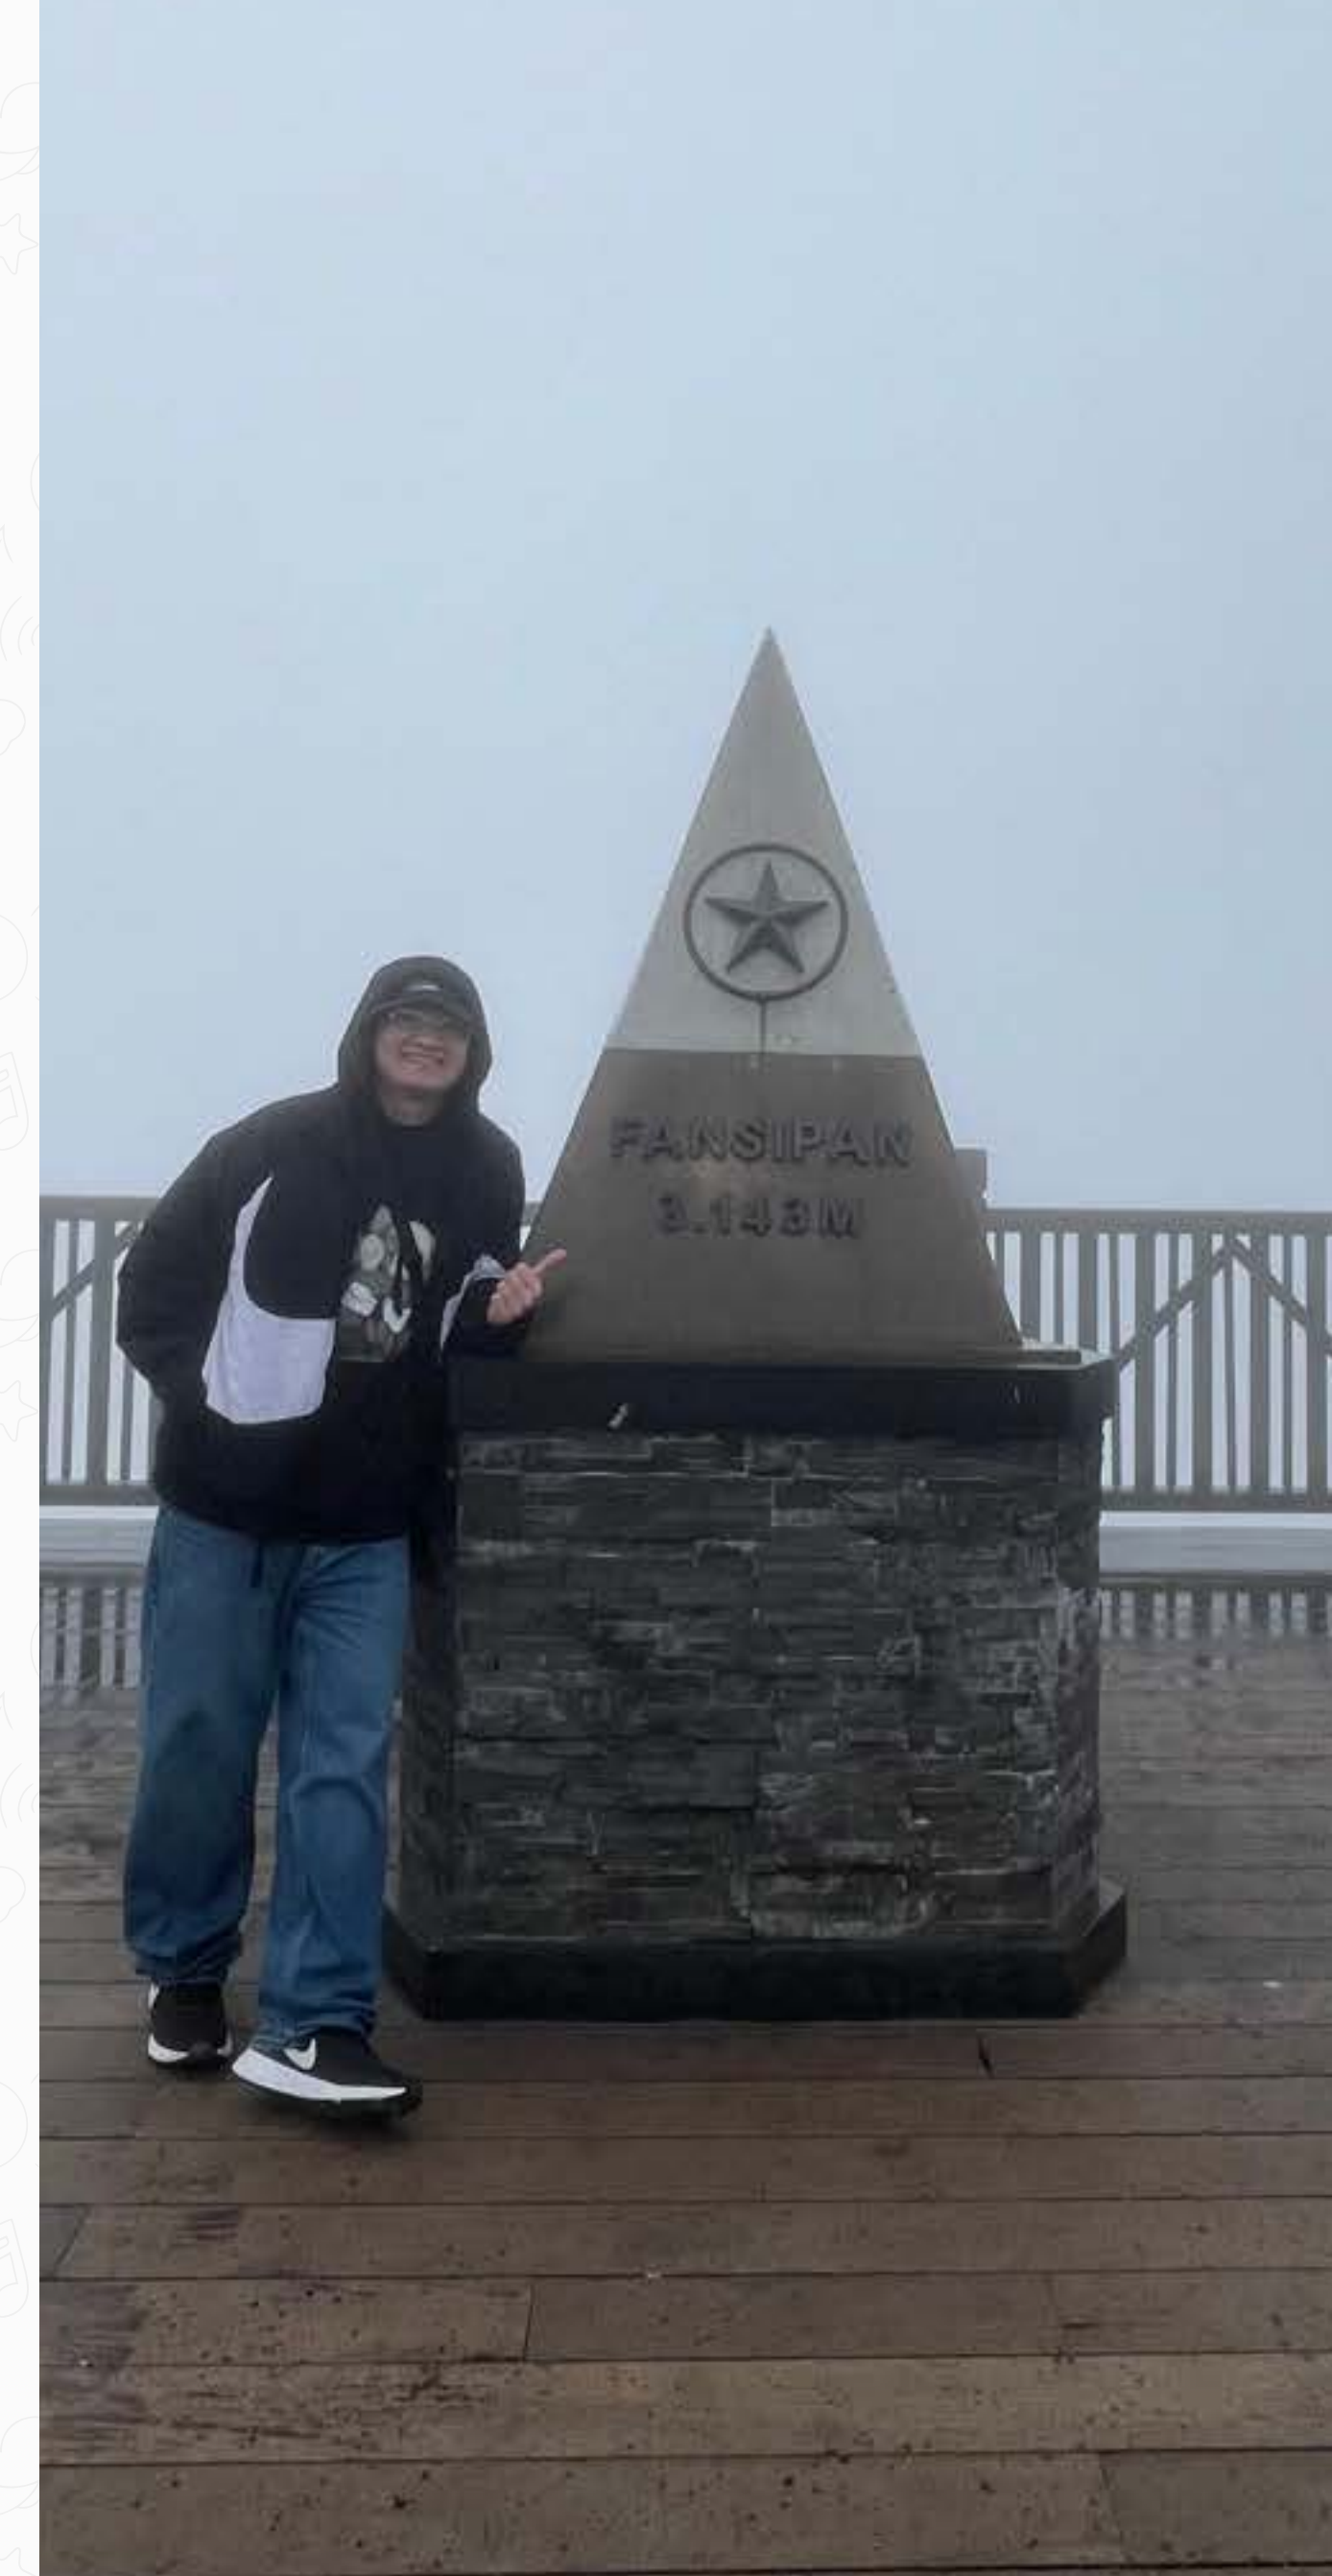

Memories

Through their internship in Vietnam, the students also created cherished memories by traveling across the country, exploring Vietnam's diverse heritage and landscape beauty.

“My experience in Vietnam has been amazing. Traveling from city to city, seeing different lifestyles and doing various activities, it was eye-opening. Vietnam has a lot to offer.”

Daryl Khor

About

Global Ready Talent

At Global Ready Talent, we understand the unique challenges that Singaporean students face when venturing abroad to work, such as in Vietnam, for a ten-week period.

That's why we have always made it a priority to provide them with timely support and assistance. Our role goes beyond being just a service provider but also their trusted friends who can accompany them to create memorable moments during their time in Vietnam.

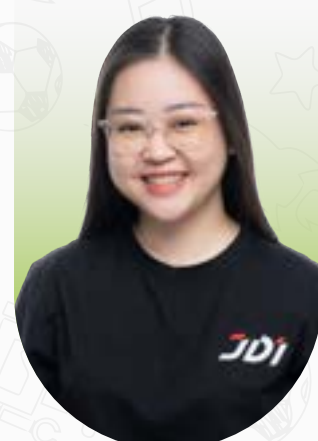

In doing so, we aim to help students foster meaningful experiences throughout their internship journey.
