Internship At Host Companies

Warm Greetings

From day one at their host companies, the students were welcomed with friendly smiles and encouragement from their new colleagues and mentors.

The onboarding process not only introduced them to daily operations but also offered their first taste of Vietnamese work culture, marking the beginning of a meaningful journey of learning and growth.

Ivan Loke

Student at Nanyang Technological University

“Nice work environment, friendly coworkers, and helpful mentors. They were always ready to accommodate my needs and were curious about different cultures as well.”

Companies' Projects

During their internships, the students didn't just learn — they put their knowledge into action.

Guided by dedicated mentors, they sharpened their skills, bridged the gap between theory and practice, and grew into confident young professionals.

Whether facing challenging projects or working alongside local teams, they gained first-hand exposure to real business dynamics, building the experience and resilience that will drive their careers forward.

Tan Chiow Jin

Student at Nanyang Technological University

"I learned many skills that I would not have been able to get elsewhere or in the classroom."

Keith Tan

Student at Nanyang Technological University

I've gained skills that extend far beyond my field of study, especially in entrepreneurship and business development.

City Tour

Guided by JDI's Global Ready Talent team, the students fully embraced the spirit of Ho Chi Minh City — exploring its rich history at museums, vibrant culture in old local apartments, and the unique flavors of authentic Vietnamese street food.

Hang Out Together

After work, the NTU students explored the city by themselves alongside their Vietnamese teammates—bonding over shared stories, delicious food, and meaningful cultural moments.

From savoring Lacaph coffee to exploring local universities and sightseeing together, every moment deepened their cultural connection and created memories that will last well beyond their internship.

Siew Zi Yang

Student at Nanyang Technological University

“The office was great and the coworkers were amazing, but maybe the duration was too short; hence not much tasking was assigned. But I still learned a lot of culture from them. Working style is very independent. But the relationship between them is like family, and I felt very welcomed during my time there.”

Outdoor Activities

Taking a break from their internship grind, the NTU students swapped screens for paddles and took on the challenge of stand-up paddleboarding.

At first, it was more “splash” than “stand,” but that only made it more fun. Between the wobbles, laughter, and teamwork, they soon found their rhythm on the water — and made plenty of memories along the way.

By the end of the day, they returned with big smiles, tired arms, and stories they’ll be laughing about long after their Vietnam adventure.
